A recent study from the Asian Australian Alliance and Osmond Chiu reported 377 incidents of racism towards Asian and Asian-Australian people between 2nd of April and 2nd of June 2020. The report found that 60% of racist incidents involved physical or verbal harassment including slurs/name calling, physical intimidation, threats or being spat at.

More information can be found via the ATN website.