

THE AUSTRALIAN Daily Telegraph

Racialised opinion pieces in Australia's mainstream media

Cultural

background

of Australian population#

Anglo-Celtic ••

1 in 5 | 1111 people experienced racism last year*

Racialised identities most often discussed negatively in media:

- Muslim Australians
- Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islanders
- African Australians

newspapers and TV shows were discussed racialised individuals or groups negatively, and ...

of those media pieces used covert forms of racism of authors of negatively racialised newspaper articles have Anglo-Celtic (72%) or European (24%) background.

60% of these were men of racialised articles are about Australians of Anglo-Celtic or European background

