

Agent C

Challenging fake news, conspiracy theories and online hate

- * Concerned about the rise of online fake news and conspiracy theories?
- * Worried about the spread of racism and online hate?

We are inviting young people to participate in 3 exciting and interactive workshops that will explore the emergence of online fake news and conspiracy theories with a focus on hateful and divisive narratives.

This program will give you:

- ▶ Knowledge around fake news and conspiracy theories, in particular how to spot them and what you can do about it
- ▶ Communication skills - learn to address complex and controversial topics in this area with the people around you
- ▶ Networks and relationships - build connections with other likeminded young people who are passionate about this area.
- ▶ You'll also receive a Westfield's voucher to the value of $25 after completing the workshops and evaluation survey.

▶ An understanding of social identity, power and privilege and how they impact on our relationship with fake news and conspiracy theories.

▶ Leadership skills - this will be an exciting opportunity to take part in workshops tackling some of the most current and important issues.
