

YOUTH-LED PROJECT BY ALL TOGETHER NOW

DESIGN AGAINST HATE

TACKLING MISOGYNY, LGBTQIA HATE & RACISM

JOIN US IN COMBATting ONLINE HATE

Are you aged 18–25 and passionate about creating safer, more inclusive communities?

Design Against Hate is a creative co-design project where young people like you take the lead in challenging the misogynistic, anti-LGBT and racist hate from the manosphere.

We're looking for 20 young people to become agents of change, co-creating and implementing innovative, real-world solutions to tackle the rise of online extremism driven by the manosphere. We will also discuss connected and overlapping online hate such as racism, homophobia and transphobia.

WHAT'S INVOLVED

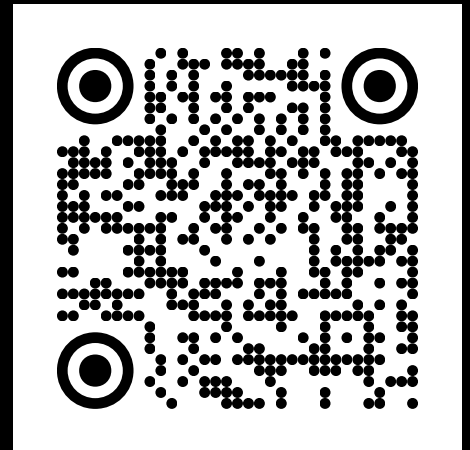

- Take part in 10 hours of creative co-design workshops over the course of 2 months
- Develop a solution as part of a team of 20 young people
- Bring your idea to life with support from the All Together Now team

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN

- Confidence to challenge hate and drive change
- A community of like-minded peers
- Real-world impact in your local area
- Skills in design, collaboration, critical thinking and project management
- A $300 voucher on completion
- It'll look great on your resume too 👁👁

Sign up here!

Interested? Please scan the QR code

See our website: bit.ly/designagainsthate

Email us at designagainsthate@alltogethernow.org.au for more information
The program is being funded by Multicultural NSW as part of its COMPACT program.

All of our work at All Together Now is imagined, designed and conducted on unceded Aboriginal land. We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of Country throughout Australia, and that Australia was, and always will be, Aboriginal land.

